PART II—GENERAL PROCESSES AND PROCEDURES FOR EXERCISING MONITORING AND ENFORCEMENT POWERS

|---|--|
| 3. Subject to the Act, any regulations made thereunder or any licence issued pursuant thereto, the Commission shall, in exercising its monitoring and enforcement powers, be guided by the following principles and considerations, that is— (a) transparency, fairness and non-discrimination ; | General principles for monitoring and enforcement powers. |
|---|--|

(b) the need to provide modern, qualitative, affordable and readily available communication services in all parts of Nigeria ;

(c) the need to promote fair competition and investment in the communications industry ;

(d) the proportionality of the enforcement sanctions with the contravention taking into account the factors specified in regulation 14(2) of these Regulations ; and

(e) such other principles and considerations as the Commission may, from time to time, consider necessary in the national interest.

Civil enforcement proceedings.

4.—(1) Without prejudice to any specific provision of the Act, any regulations made thereunder or any licence issued pursuant thereto, the Commission may, in the exercise of its enforcement powers, institute civil proceedings in Court against any person for any remedy including injunctive relief, recovery of administrative fines, specific performance or pecuniary awards or damages.

(2) The Commission may issue directions in writing to any person or licensee.

(3) The Commission may seek the assistance of any law enforcement agency to enforce compliance with any directions issues under paragraph (2) of this regulation.

Procedure for exercising power to seal off premises or seize and detain equipment, etc.

5.—(1) In exercising the powers of entry and investigation pursuant to section 141 (2) of the Act, the Commission, its authorised officers or appointed inspectors may—

(a) demand the testing or operation or use howsoever of any radio communication station or apparatus or other communication equipment or facilities by the person in whose custody the equipment or facility is ; and

(b) subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) of this regulation, seal off or seize and detain in the custody of the Commission for such period and on such terms as the Commission may consider expedient or necessary to carry out and conclude the relevant monitoring and enforcement procedure—

(i) any such radio communication station or apparatus or other communications equipment or facilities,

(ii) any building or premises, or

(iii) any book, record, document or other information storage system.

(2) The Commission may seize and detain or seal off any building or premises or any of the items mentioned in paragraph (1) of this regulation in the following circumstances, that is—

(a) where such item mentioned in paragraph (1) (b) of this regulation constitutes part of an unlawful or unauthorised operation ; or

(b) where such item mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) of this regulation is relevant and required for the prosecution in court of a person under the Act or any regulations made thereunder ; or

(c) such other circumstances that are expressly provided for under the Act.

(3) In seizing and detaining or sealing off any premises or building or any of the items specified in paragraph (1) (b) of this regulation, the Commission shall—

(a) obtain a warrant from a Magistrate or a Judge of a court of competent jurisdiction ;

(b) provide to the owner or his agent, a written inventory in evidence of the seizure of the seized equipment, facility, book, record, document or other information storage system except that there shall be no need for the issuance of such receipt where the item is sealed off and remains in the custody of the owner or agent.

(4) Where any of the powers of the Commission under section 141 of the Act is to be exercised by any authorised officer or appointed inspector, the Commission shall issue a letter of authority to such officer or inspector in the form specified in Form B in the First Schedule to these Regulations.

Form B.
First
Schedule.

6.—(1) Any person who assaults, obstructs or resists or aids any other person to assault, obstruct or resist any official or appointed inspector of the Commission in the performance of his monitoring and enforcement duties under the Act or these Regulations, commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ₦100,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Obstruction
monitoring and enforcement duties. etc.

(2) Any person who impersonates any official or appointed inspector of the Commission, commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ₦100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

7.—(1) Every licensee shall provide any basic information that may be required by any relevant authority, pursuant to section 146 of the Act, upon presentation to the licensee of a written request therefor from the relevant authority (without any further assurance), duly signed by an officer of the Nigeria Police Force not below the substantive rank of Assistant Commissioner of Police or its equivalent in any of the relevant authorities.

Information
licence. etc.

(2) Subject to paragraph (1) of this regulation, a licence shall provide such non-basic information as may be required by any relevant authority, pursuant to section 146 of the Act, upon the presentation to the licensee by the relevant authority of the sanction therefor by a Judge or Magistrate in the form or manner specified in Forms C 1 of the First Schedule to these Regulations.

First
Schedule.
Form C 1.

(3) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this regulation shall not apply to the Commission with respect to the exercise of its powers under or pursuant to section 146 of the Act.

PART III—CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND TECHNICAL REGULATIONS

8.—(1) The Commission may from time to time, for the purposes of protecting consumers and ensuring ethical marketing and promotional standards by licensees, publish guidelines specifying inter alia minimum standards and requirements in respect of advertisements and promotions of products and services by licensees.

Guidelines for promotion
and
of services.

(2) Every licensee shall obtain the prior written approval of the Commission in respect of the contents and representations contained in any promotion of products or services whatsoever and howsoever, the failure to obtain such required approval shall constitute a contravention under these Regulations.

(3) The Commission shall cause the approval or otherwise of the content and representations of promotional products or services to be communicated to the operator within one week of the date of the request for approval.

Type approval processes and procedures.

9. In carrying out its type approval functions pursuant to section 132 of the Act, the Commission shall, from time to time, determine and publish its processes and procedures.

Miscellaneous provisions relating to spectrum frequency interference.

10. Where licences are issued based on assigned bands of frequencies and operating geographical regions, either in accordance with State boundaries or other such boundaries as may be delineated and specified by the Commission, from time to time, by regulation or in the licence, the licensee shall ensure that the strength of radio signals from its network emitting into adjacent or other licensee's regions or frequency bands are not such as to cause harmful interference in such regions or frequency bands.

Acts constituting contravention, etc.

11. Without prejudice to such other enforcement measures as are or may be contained in the Act, any regulations made thereunder or in a licence, any of the following acts or conducts by any licensee or person shall constitute a contravention under these Regulations, that is—

(a) any act occasioning harmful interference mentioned in regulation 10 of these Regulations ; or

(b) a breach or violation howsoever of any guidelines and standards as may be specified or issued by the Commission, from time to time, on advertisements and promotions of products and services by licensees pursuant to regulation 8(1) of these Regulations ; or

(c) a failure to meet such power limits as the Commission may, from time to time, specify and published pursuant to section 130 of the Act with respect to radio frequency power output of any transmitting device ; or

(d) a failure to fulfil or satisfy howsoever the type approval provisions and requirements in the Act, any regulations made thereunder or in any licence.

Quality of service.

12. Without prejudice to such other enforcement measures as are or may be contained in the Act, any regulations made thereunder or in any licence conditions, the failure by any licensee to meet such minimum standards of quality of service as the Commission may, from time to time, specify and publish pursuant to section 104 of the Act shall constitute contravention under these Regulations.

Administrative sanctions for contravention of technical regulations, etc. Second Schedule.

13. Without prejudice to such other enforcement measures as are or may be contained in the Act, any regulations made thereunder or in any licence condition, contravention of the provisions contained in regulations 8, 11 and 12 of these Regulations shall attract the administrative fines specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

PART IV—ADMINISTRATIVE FINES

14.—(1) Without prejudice to the specific enforcement provisions contained in the Act, any regulations made thereunder or any relevant licence, the Commission may, subject to paragraph (2) of this regulation, impose administrative fines for enforcement purposes, pursuant to the Act and these Regulations, including but not limited to instances where specific enforcement sanctions have not been provided for in the Act, any regulations made thereunder or in any licence.

Imposition of general administrative fines.

(2) In imposing administrative fines as sanctions the Commission shall be generally guided by the following factors and considerations, that is—

(a) the severity of the contravention and the need to impose such fine or the amount thereof so as to act as deterrent both to the person who committed such contravention and other persons ;

(b) non-discriminatory and transparency in the imposition of sanctions generally including but not limited to sanctions on different persons for similar contraventions committed in identical circumstances ;

(c) the prevalence of the contravention in the industry generally and the likelihood of repetition by the person who committed the contravention or other persons ;

(d) the duration of the contravention ;

(e) the circumstances of the contravention and in particular, but not limited to, a consideration of whether or not the contravention was deliberately or recklessly or negligently committed by the person who committed the contravention ;

(f) the record of previous or similar contravention by the person who committed the contravention or other persons ;

(g) attitude and conduct of the person who committed the contravention prior to and leading up to the act of contravention and consequent upon the contravention ;

(h) the danger to life and property consequent upon the contravention ;

(i) the effect of contravention on relevant service provision generally ;

(j) any gain (financial or otherwise) made by the person who committed the contravention directly or indirectly arising from such contravention ;

(k) the degree of harm, injury, discomfort or the incremental cost caused or occasioned by such contravention to consumers or other stakeholders in the communications sector ;

(l) the size of the annual turnover of the person who committed the contravention ;

(m) the extent to which any contravention was caused by a third party or any relevant circumstances beyond the control of the person who committed the contravention ;

(n) the absence, ineffectiveness or repeated failure of internal mechanisms or procedures required to prevent contravention by the person who committed the contravention ;

(o) the possible mitigating circumstances including but not limited to—

(i) whether or not the contravention was of a minor nature and the consequences and effect thereof were equally minor in nature ;

(ii) whether or not the person who committed the contravention took immediate steps to remedy the contravention soon after having knowledge of the contravention ;

(p) such other factors as the Commission may, from time to time, determine.

Specific administrative fines.
Second
Schedule.

15.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of regulation 14 of these Regulations, the Commission may impose administrative fines in the amounts specified in Second Schedule to these Regulations for each contravention or noncompliance by the licensees.

(2) Any administrative fine imposed by the Commission pursuant to the Act, any regulations made thereunder or any licence shall become due and payable by the person who committed the contravention within 14 days from the date of the receipt, by the person who committed the contravention, of the notification document issued by the Commission.

(3) The payment of an administrative fine by a person who committed the contravention shall not be construed as a limitation or foreclosure of the power of the Commission to impose any other enforcement sanctions under the Act, any regulations made thereunder or in any licence.

PART V—PROCEDURE FOR REVOCATION OF LICENCE

Procedures for revocation of licence.

16.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Act, any Regulations made thereunder and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any licence, the Commission may, in addition to the circumstances for suspension or revocation of licence under section 45 of the Act, revoke a licence under the following circumstances and procedures, that is—

(a) if the licensee ceases for a continuous period of 30 days at any time after commercial launch date, to provide, in the licensed area or any part or location thereof, the service for which the license was granted ;

(b) if any amount payable under any condition of a license remains unpaid after it has become due and remains unpaid for a period of 21 days after the Commission notifies the licensee in writing that the payment is due ;

(c) if the licensee fails to comply with the type approval of equipment or facilities granted by the Commission pursuant to section 132 of the Act ;

(d) if within 12 months of the effective date of the license, the licensee has not commenced full licensed operations to the satisfaction of the Commission :

Provided that the Commission shall give prior notice to the licensee specifying the details of the default by the licensee and requiring that remedial steps be taken within 30 days of such notice.

(e) if the licensee makes any statement in the course of applying for a license and the statement is subsequently discovered to be false or misleading in any material particular.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Act or paragraph (1) of this regulation, the Commission may, as an alternative to revocation of a licence pursuant to the Act, any regulations made thereunder, and wherever necessary—

(a) impose the administrative fines stipulated in the Second Schedule to these Second Regulations in respect of the contravention specified in paragraph (1) of this Schedule regulation ; or

Second
Schedule.

(b) require that the licensee makes such changes in its management as the Commission may consider necessary and within such time as the Commission may specify :

Provided that nothing in this paragraph of this regulation shall, where the Commission determines that a licence shall be revoked, preclude the Commission from imposing, in addition to a revocation of the licence, any administrative fine stipulated in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

(3) The licence fees that have been paid in respect of a license revoked pursuant to the Act or paragraph (1) of this regulation shall not be refunded whether in part or whole consequent upon such revocation.

17. The original copy of any license that is revoked pursuant to the Act or any regulations made thereunder shall be returned to the Commission by the licensee within 14 days of the effective date of the revocation.

Return of license to Commission.
